CESAR DEL AGUILA NAMED VICE MAYOR BY RESOLUTION

Herndon, VA (January 6, 2021) - Town of Herndon Mayor Sheila A. Olem and members of the Herndon Town Council approved a resolution naming Cesar del Aguila as Vice Mayor for the 2021-2022 term.

The resolution naming del Aguila passed with a vote of 6-0, with del Aguila abstaining. Traditionally, the councilmember who receives the highest number of votes during the general town elections is named to the post of Vice Mayor; del Aguila received the highest number of votes during the election on November 3.

Del Aguila is serving his second term on the Herndon Town Council. He has chaired the town's Pedestrian & Bicycle Committee and its Interview Subcommittee and has served as the town's representative to the Dulles Area Transportation Association and the Phase II Dulles Rail Transportation Improvement District Commission Board. A resident of Herndon since 2007, he is an active volunteer with the Fairfax County Sheriff's Office, serving as a certified reserve deputy sheriff.

A regional vice president of sales at Conga, formerly Apttus, del Aguila has held positions of increasing responsibility in sales, serving Fortune 100/500 clients throughout the mid-Atlantic states.
